Marching band season is over, summer is fast approaching, and you need to keep up your musical skills while school is out.

How? It's easy. JOIN US!

Q.: Do I have to audition?

A.: NO!

Q.: What do I have to provide?

A.: Your own instrument, a raggedy uniform (of your own creation), and your presence.

Q.: What do I get out of it?

A.: You become part of a fun-loving musical family -- a community band that's been around since 1946. When you meet attendance requirements and become an active member, after one year you become eligible for one of our scholarship awards.

Q.: When do you rehearse?

A.: Thursday evenings, 8 to 10 p.m., at Hobo Hall, Lambs Road and Holly Aves.
(next to Carolina Blue Restaurant)

Q.: Where do you perform?

A.: We do parades and concerts, mostly in southern New Jersey.

Q.: What if I have to miss a rehearsal?

A.: We'll miss you.

Q.: What if I have to leave the rehearsal early?

A.: Not a problem. You'll get full credit if you stay for an hour.

SO -- WHAT ARE YOU WAITING FOR?
A WRITTEN INVITATION?

P.S.: PARENTS — Do you play? If you do, YOU COME, TOO!
